FROM ST. LOUIS.

[illegible] Chicago Tribune.

The Mayor received a telegram to-day from Chicago, announcing the removal of David Wilson, ex-Mayor of St. Louis, as Internal Revenue Collector, and Silas Woodward, Treasurer of Missouri, as Assessor of Internal Revenue. The offices, however, remain in the same city. There is much speculation as to the cause of the removal, but no one has yet ventured an opinion.

An alley took place on Saturday in Lafayette Park between the editor of the Lexington Union and a legal gentleman. The quarrel originated in the Union's attack upon Judge Krum, of the Circuit Court, for his decision in the case of Mrs. Dr. Hall, who was granted a divorce from her husband, and restored to her maiden name. The first shot was fired by the editor, and the second by the lawyer, neither of which took effect. The third shot was fired by the editor, and the fourth by the lawyer, inflicting a severe wound in the editor's leg, which will confine him to his room for some time.

A political skirmish took place in Kirkwood, this county, on Saturday last, between the Democrats and Republicans, in which the latter were defeated by a majority of 100. The Democrats elected their entire ticket, with the exception of Collector, Assessor, and Constable. The Democrats also elected a majority of the Board of Aldermen. The Republicans elected the Mayor, Treasurer, Clerk, and Attorney. The Democrats elected the Collector, Assessor, and Constable, and the remaining 4 Aldermen.

The house of Mr. Gerrau, also called Jones Hill, was burned at 3 o'clock this morning. The family were at supper, by a band of incendiaries, who fired the house and escaped. The loss is $5,000. The robbers were disguised, some dressed as women. Mr. Gerrau is a brother of Mr. Gerrau, the banker in St. Louis at the time, bringing with him $2,000 in gold, and $2,000 in silver.

Col. J. J. Gurney has been appointed by the Governor Chief Engineer of Mr. Hannibal & St. Joe Railroad.

The Democratic Convention of this county met at the Court-house this morning, and nominated the following ticket: For Judge of the Criminal Court, Wm. Patterson; for Clerk, Thomas Hall; for Assessor, Wm. Hall; for Collector, Wm. Hall; for Coroner, Dr. Hall; for Public Administrator, Dr. Hall; for Surveyor, Dr. Hall; for Constable, Dr. Hall; for Justices of the Peace, Dr. Hall, Dr. Hall, Dr. Hall
